Register your eSync

Having a registered copy of eSync will give you access to support. In case of problems or questions, you can contact your local distributor. The local distributor will relay your question to eWON support if required.

Also, registering will keep you informed about new available updates.

How to register:

1. Contact your local distributor to buy an eSync license.

2. By email you'll receive your license serial number.

3. With this license serial number, connect to following registration page: https://support.ewon.biz/eSync/

4. Encode your company information, your email address and the serial number. Once finished click on "Register" button.

5. This will send you an email containing the license activation key.

6. Mail content example:

> Dear customer,
>
> We thank you for registering eSync.
>
> You have registered your eSync copy with the following information;
>
> > Serial Number: E16996F349A40FC40

> > Activation Key: D7FF7C021A319332B761326CA677B6AF77
> > License Number: 3623662722
>
> In order to complete registration process, please follow the "Enter registration info" link which is located at the top right corner of eSync web console.
>
> Type your company name (which you have provided for registration process) and activation key and then click on the "Activate eSync" button.
>
> From that moment on you can access to your registration info from eSync info screen by clicking on eSync logo.
>
> Your eWON distributor is ready to answer your questions and support you with using eWON & eSync products.
>
> We thank you for choosing eWON's solutions and wish you a lot of success in your projects.
>
> Best regards,
> Your eWON & Talk2M team

7. In order to complete the registration process, on your PC start the eSync application and on the upper right of the page select the " Enter registration info " option.

8. Type your company name (which you have provided for registration process) and activation key and then click on the "Activate eSync" button.

9. Your eSync is now registered.
